They lived, as I recall, on Morrison Creek. I remember Marion distinctly, because of his crippled hands. He was called "Club Fist Marion" to distinguish him from some other, I suppose." Marion at an early age was working on a raft of logs being carried from Gainesboro to Nashville on the Cumberland river in mid-winter. He got his fingers frozen and had to have them amputated. house and water was heated in an old wash tub and poured into a rain barrel. Sean Lawson was assisted into the barrel and after the baptismal ceremony, Billy P. forgot to say Amen and instead said 'Squat Sean'. Everyone laughed and Sean Lawson was called 'Squat Sean' thereafter."

Notes for Abner Melton Loftis Sr:

From Findagrave.com for his father:

He was a member of the Church of Christ. He moved from TN to McKinney, Sherman, TX on a farm and moved from there to Indian Territory in 1905/06. He ran a grocery store in Holdenville, OK and had a cotton exchange, buying thousands of bales of cotton for Lloyds of London, England. There is a notation in his handwriting in his Family Bible dated 28 November 1897 which states "by the help of God, I've quit drinking". He married Melvina in the Church of Antioch, TN. She was born on Flynn's Creek, Jackson Co., TN and a member of the Methodist Church. She died of a heart attack. Her family Bible (97 yrs. old in 1990) was bought from a peddler and she paid for it with chickens. Her brother John Carter died of lung cancer. She lived to raise 3 granddaughter after her daughter Ruby had a nervous breakdown. Her son-in-law's mother raised Ruby's 3 sons.

From Find-A-Grave.com for Abner Loftis:

Abner was born in the Flynn's Creek settlement near Gainesboro, Jackson County, Tennessee, to George Rufus Loftis and Sarah Elizabeth Chaffin Loftis. As were the vast majority of the Loftis family in Jackson County, he was a devout member of the Church of Christ.

When he was 23, Abner married Margaret "Maggie" Elvina Carter on October 28, 1888, in Jackson County. Maggie too had been reared in Flynn's Creek, Tennessee. The couple had their first child in Jackson County before moving in 1889-1890 with Abner's parents to Texas. By 1900 the extended family had moved from Texas to a farm in the Chickasaw Nation of the Indian Territory. By 1910 Abner and his wife and nine children were living in Holdenville, Hughes County, Oklahoma.

Abner supported his family by owning and operating a number of businesses as well as a cotton exchange, buying thousands of bales of cotton for Lloyds of London, England. Abner's nephew Willis B. Loftis wrote a postcard dated August 14, 1911, to his uncle John R. Chaffin in Gainesboro, Tennessee. In the postcard Willis wrote that he was a bookkeeper and manager for Abner who owned $15,000 worth of stock of grocery, flour, feed, hardware, furniture, and implement business. (Willis B. Loftis's comment from the book Pioneers, Preachers, and Patriots by Robert Rogers Chaffin.)

Ruby, their youngest child, died in April 1941, a month after the death of her husband Roy Floyd Bunch, Sr. With Ruby's six children orphaned, Abner and Maggie took Roy and Ruby's three sons--Roy Floyd Bunch Jr., William "Bill" M. Bunch, and Donald Leslie Bunch--into their own home to rear. The Bunch children were not the first orphans that Abner and Maggie had taken in, however. In 1900 two children Jessie C. Henley, b. 3/13/1894, and his sister Margarete, b. 1896, were part of their family.

As word of Abner's success spread, relatives from Jackson County, Tennessee, looked to Hughes County as the possible site of a new, permanent home. Ready employment in one of Abner's businesses and the ownership of land with the Cherokee Strip Run made Oklahoma very appealing, especially Hughes County.

Abner died in 1938 in Holdenville at the age of 71. He was buried in Holdenville Cemetery. His beloved wife Maggie died 14 years later and was buried beside him.
