Josiah's story

Posted Apr 28, 2012 by PDumper

Josiah was born in Beverly, Massachusetts and baptised 28 Oct 1711 married 1735 to Patience Chamberlain daughter of Joseph Chamberlain one of the first settlers of Oxford Massachusetts from which he moved to Keekamooching in the town of Dudley. Patience probably died before 1755 because she was not named in the deed her husband signed that same year and recorded in Essex records vol 116 pg 166. In this deed he is designated as Josiah Balch, house-wright of Douglas, Worchester County, Massachusetts. After leaving Beverly he located in Thompson Connecticut then to Worchester. In 1744 with his brother-in-law Ebenezer Chamberlain he bought 300 acres of land from the state. It was in the wilderness, one of those bits of land known as gores, which in the crude surveys of early times were sometimes left unsurveyed between the boundary lines of towns which were intended to join. This territory was called South Gore, but being near Douglas, Josiah was known as Josiah of Douglas. On the partition of the purchase he took the south part near the Connecticut line where he probably died. 1759 he deeded his farm to his son. The South Gore was subsequently taken into the town of Oxford.

From the Bellingham Herald of Monday, 4 Jan 1932, pg 1:
Blaine Merchant, County Pioneer, Stroke Victim.

A. S. Balch, Blaine merchant and Whatcom county pioneer, died at a local hospital early today, following a third stroke, which he suffered last Wednesday. Mr. Balch was 70 years of age. Funeral announcements will be made by E. E. Purdy and Son, Blaine. Mr. Balch, who was prominent in Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias circles, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Josephine Balch, Blaine; one son, Albert S. Balch Jr., Seattle, and three brothers, Uriel, Will and Elmer Balch, Kalamazoo, Mich., and by his step-mother, 104 years of age, Orlando, Fla.

Born in Kalamazoo, Mich., Mr. Balch came to Washington in 1884 when it was a territory. In 1889 he settled in Fairhaven, engaging in the real estate business during the boom days on Lummi island. Subsequently he left for Seattle to continue as a real estate operator, but when his boat got there the fire that razed the city had burned the docks and it was necessary to proceed to Tacoma.

Loses Fortunes.

Instead of establishing himself in Seattle, Mr. Balch went to Wallace, Idaho. He invested heavily in the silver and lead mines of the Couer d'Alenes, and was president of four mining companies.

He made two comfortable fortunes, only to lose them in distant mining undertakings.

Mr. Balch was a leading member of the Western Federal of Miners, holding the office of secretary-treasurer in Idaho. he was a delegate from Idaho to three American Federation of Labor conventions. In Idaho and Washington Mr. Balch was renowned for his strength. In the early 80's and 90's he was the winner of numerous competitive exhibitions of strength in the mining fields.

Fifty years ago in Eldorado, Kansas, Mr. Balch was initiated in the Odd Fellows. He had been a member of the Fairhaven lodge since 1889 and of the Knights of Pythias since he joined them in Eldorado in 1882. He held all the chairs in both lodges. Mr. Balch was a direct descendant of John Balch, who came to Plymouth in 1623 and was one of the eight founders of Salem, Mass., which was founded before Boston. The Balch homestead still stands on the Old Post road outside Salem. The residence, which was built in 1628, also stands being maintained by contributions of the Balch families throughout the county.

Notes for Patricia A Balch:

<https://betzlerlifestory.com/obituaries/patricia-pat-henry.141534>

With a warm smile and a kind heart, Patricia "Pat" Henry lived a life rich in family and friends. Once you met her, you had a friend for life, no matter who you were, or how you came across her path. She loved nature, her living room window was her "TV" where she was fortunate enough to spend her last days. Her love for nature could be seen inside and outside her home with her plants and flowers. Pat greeted each day as a gift to be shared with the ones she saw that day. An inspiration to all who knew her, Pat will long be remembered and dearly missed.

Pat always reminded us that 1928 was the year she and Mickey Mouse were born, always adding she was older by three months. 1928 continued to ride the decade's roaring wave of peace, prosperity, and hope. She often raved of sharing the same birth year as Mickey Mouse. As the wave of sweeping social and economic growth rapidly increased, so did the beginning of Thurlo and Marguerite 's family with Patricia being the first born of 8 children. Growing up in a large family in the Oakwood neighborhood, Pat learned at an early age how to be resourceful and not wasteful. She enjoyed strong family ties and rich traditions, including the strawberry shortcake her mother made for her birthday each year with special strawberries she saved at the end of the season.

As a young girl, Pat caught the eye of a neighbor boy, Bill Henry, who was instantly smitten. He quickly figured out that by taking an alternative route to school, he could be near her. His efforts proved worthwhile, for, in time, Pat found herself smitten with him, too! Though she attended State High and had thoughts of becoming a doctor, the path she chose was family and marriage to Bill. From that point on, Bill always referred to her as "Doc."

Pat and Bill married on January 24, 1948. Nine months later, along came Tom. After two miscarriages, adoption became the option they chose and several years later, Janet was brought home in June of 1957. Now, their family was complete!

They began building their first house on property given to Bill from his parents across the bridge in the back of Oakwood. They were frugal and committed to only paying cash for purchases. Pat found a variety of ways to save and earn extra money, such as hand-sewing clothes and making wedding cakes. Her tradition of making homemade peanut brittle and selling it to family, friends, and neighbors was legendary. One year she made a thousand pounds of peanut brittle! Over their 69 and half years of marriage, they never had a house or car payment.

Creating strong family bonds was always important to Pat and grew even more so over the years as the generations continued to grow. Their home was a gathering place where holidays were celebrated, leaf raking parties were hosted, or a quick visit with a piece of candy out of the dish and a little conversation. "Home" was a feeling she created, and we all felt it as soon as we walked through the door.

Tom and Janet, and cousins Dave and Sandy next door, as well as their friends from the neighborhood played in the creek just as Pat and Bill had in their youth. Family vacations consisted of getting in the family car and heading out for a two-week camping trip somewhere in northern Michigan or out west. In 1967, Pat and Bill purchased property in Bear Lake, Michigan. They later added a basement then eventually an A frame cabin on top of that, which is known today as the Family Cabin. Many generations have enjoyed and will continue to enjoy this property as she intended.

Pat was a fabulous hostess. She enjoyed cooking and baking for others, and everyone enjoyed her meals. For all who were lucky to indulge in them, her homemade donuts, pecan pie, and banana pudding were some favorites.

Later in life, after their kids were grown, Pat and Bill continued to enjoy time at their cabin, as well as traveling farther from home. They made yearly trips to Hawaii, explored the East Coast and Canada, and vacationed in the Caribbean. While Bill was content to sit on the beach with a beer in his hand, Pat rarely sat still and was always up for an adventure. She floated down the river, parasailed, swam with the dolphins, and collected a small bottle of sand from each beach she visited to add to her collection.

Though they sold their original home and briefly moved to Parkview Hills, Pat and Bill found themselves longing for their Oakwood neighborhood and eventually moved back. Driven by their love for the neighborhood, Pat and Bill worked diligently to preserve the history of the Oakwood Neighborhood. In 1999, Pat Published her book, The History of Oakwood: A Community of Kalamazoo, Michigan. In 2022, she was proud to receive the Historic Preservation Award of Merit from the Kalamazoo Historic Preservation Commission in honor of all her hard work, ensuring the magic of her treasured neighborhood would be remembered for years and years to come.

For 20 years, she and Bill wintered in Texas at the same park her parents and a brother had also wintered. Much like at their home in Michigan, they enjoyed a great circle of friends at their winter home. Pat enjoyed playing card games, dancing, and frequent trips to Mexico with her friends. When family visited, there was always a well-laid-out plan of what they would do during their visit. Everyone was on the move, and one usually needed a vacation to rest up after visiting.

Pat was content with the simple things in life. She loved the sand and water and was most comfortable in her swimsuit and bare feet. She loved being outdoors, in the sun, and tending her garden was never work. She enjoyed bird watching and could identify all kinds of feathered friends. She relished finding things in nature and turning them into art. Though she did not like to watch TV, she would constantly be reading, either a book or on her iPad. She never let her age get in the way of learning and enjoying technology. She was quite tech-savvy and liked being able to stay in touch and play games on her iPad, including checking out Facebook and playing card games.

For those who were lucky to spend time with Pat, it was abundantly clear that her greatest joy was her family. She bonded with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren with spur-of-the-moment stops for ice cream, morel hunting, and celebrating special events. A powerful role model for how to live a wholehearted life, Pat found the beauty in every moment. It is this beautiful legacy that those she so dearly loved will proudly carry forward in celebration of the many ways Pat gifted the world and our lives.

Notes for William H. Henry:
William Henry Jr. Obit
Posted Jul 25, 2017 by Larry Henry

Bill Henry lived a rich and adventurous life. Never one to remain idle, he held vast interests and generously gave of his time and resources to others in need. A devoted family man, there simply wasn't anything he wouldn't do for them. He was connected to both the animals and the people in the community around him. Known as a perfectionist and a frugal man who loved a good bargain, Bill leaves behind a legacy of being truly passionate about life and treating everyone he met with kindness. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

During an era that saw the large-scale boom of automobiles, telephones and motion pictures, as well as unprecedented industrial growth and significant changes in our nation's culture, William Sr. and Henrietta (Van Haaften) Henry welcomed the arrival of their newborn son, William, on April 28, 1928 in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Born the second of five children, his birth brought great joy into the family home.

A longtime resident of the Oakwood area, Bill lived a typical childhood and attended local schools. He loved to run the neighborhood and play in the nearby creek which provided rich and adventurous opportunities for him over the years. He and his dad spent many days trapping animals in the neighborhood sparking in him a lifetime connection with nature and wildlife. At the tender age of ten, a young dark-haired neighbor girl caught his eye and he figured out that if he took an alternative route to and from school each day, he'd run into her! So began the childhood love story of he and Pat Balch. He graduated with the Class of 1946 from Kalamazoo Central where he was known to be a troublemaker. With a knack for working with his hands and a whole lot of know-how, he was able to get work with a local trucking industry.

Eager to start a life of their own, he and Pat joined in marriage on January 24, 1948, at the First Methodist Church. They honeymooned at the Palmer House in Chicago and Bill still would grumble over the years that it had cost him eight dollars a night! Their son, Tom, was conceived on their wedding night, so some would argue it was money well spent! Later, his parents gifted he and Pat a plot of land where they had big plans to build their first home! Clearing the space at the end of Madison Street, Bill set to work on the construction while at the same time the bridge was going up in the area. Nearing its completion, Tommy was born! Roughly nine years later, they welcomed their adopted daughter, Janet into their lives making their family complete!

Working to provide for his growing family, Bill went on to work for WL Molding as well as for Sutherland Paper Company. Their home became a gathering place for many of their close friends and family over the years. They both treasured the times they could get together and serve good food, share laughter, and serve some of the best homemade ice cream in town! The neighborhood kids carried on the tradition of playing in the creek while the adults shared stories of days gone by. Guests often reveled in the serenity of their home. When the summer days rolled in they spent many delightful years at their cabin up north on Bear Lake which they had purchased in 1967. It, too, was a magical place for large gatherings of friends and family and everyone was always welcome. Bill loved to grill out and cook different types of meat and invite people to share in his food creations.

Bill enjoyed all types of special interests over the years. A nature lover, he enjoyed feeding many birds and squirrels right from the palm of his hand! He did, however, have a steady war against the pesky red squirrels and chipmunks! The family always had animals. Some were pets and others were wild ones that Bill had added to the mix! A believer in relaxation, Bill continued his passion for numismatics. He also loved to key up the Big Band music, burn incense, and fix himself a rum and coke around 3 in the afternoon! Not much of a sports fan, he often listened to more than watched the Detroit Tigers, a pastime from his childhood years that brought him great joy!

Accomplishing nearly forty years of truck driving, he retired from the James River Paper Company in 1988. Bill and Pat both enjoyed countless memorable moments over the course of their years together! During retirement, they both treasured traveling and had been all over Mexico, Hawaii, and Canada. They enjoyed a train trip out West, many cruises, and loved to winter in the beautiful state of Texas. For roughly twenty years, they'd head out for Weslaco which is close enough to the border to cross into Mexico for happy hour, playing cards, and Polka dancing! He and Pat enjoyed many years in the local St. Patty's Day parade and was chosen to be the Grand Marshal in 2016! To pass the time away during those winters when the Tigers weren't playing, he'd catch a game of golf on TV. No matter where he was, Bill's heart was always back in Oakwood. He genuinely cared for the area and the people there. Although, he and Pat sold their original home and briefly moved to Parkview Hills, they savored their times in Oakwood and eventually moved back to the neighborhood. Described as an easy going, fun loving person, Bill's wonderful collection of memories will be timelessly shared among all who knew and loved him for years to come.
