Notes for Tranquilla Darling:

Born in 1855 in Pontotoc County, to Ephraim(son of John and Mary (Pace)Darling, and Penninah(Coley). The granddaughter of Margret Elizabeth(Pace) Coley and William Coley Jr. Married on November 11th 1879, to John Franklin Jones. The mother of Edward, Ephraim Andrew,Lum, Henry,Robert,Isom,Elizabeth(Starnes),Nancy(Young),Mae(Pather). John Franklin died in 1936 and is buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery(according to The Union County History book, article written by James L. Patrick, a great grandson of Tranquilla and John), John is listed as a widower on the 1930 census and was living with a son.(This census must have been late)Thanks to the help of RAOGK Volunteer Ms. Kelly, Tranquillas death records have been found. In September Tranquilla was attended by Dr. Gourdlock it was determined that Tranquilla at the age of 76 was suffering from (Aortic regurgitation). Her symptoms would have been the same as cardiac distress, with a racing pulse as her heart pumped harder and harder to move blood into the left atrium as it was continuing to seep back into the Aorta. Many legends have been handed down from family. Tranquilla is believed to be over half Indian. My grandfather a grandson of Tranquilla, said his grandmother sang to him in Indian, and that Indians came and wanted Tranquilla or his mother Elizabeth to go with them to the reservation. There is a story of an Indian Lady being taken by force to a train and being saved by the Jones boys. True or not these legends have kept Tranquilla's memory alive. It is a fact that John signed a 200 dollar bond agreement five days before being able to marry Tranquilla. (This was common at this time) The search goes on and branches of her (now very extended family) are searching for clues and facts on Tranquilla and John Franklin. In 1926 Tranquilla and John Franklin were forced to "break up house keeping" and move in with children one staying with a son and the other with another son. (reported by granddaughter Nannie) Tranquilla (in a wheelchair) lived 5 years. John lived 10. The picture shown was my great grandmother Elizabeth's (Lizzie) Jones-Starnes, handed down to Uncle Cliff and in the hands of his granddaughter. (Great Great Granddaughter of Tranquilla and John Franklin). Her family continues.

Tracy:

The known children of John Darling and Mary Pace are Rhoda, Ephraim, Andrew and Maria per Peggy Chapman (email unknown). They married 12/30/1803 in Richmond Co, GA. Mary was a daughter of Drury Pace and Mary Bussey. She is a descendant of Richard Pace of Jamestown, VA, ca 1625.

The granddaughter of Margret Elizabeth (Pace) Coley and William Coley Jr. Married on November 11th, 1879, to John Franklin Jones. The mother of Edward, Ephriam Andrew, Lum, Henry, Robert, Isom, Elizabeth (Starnes), Nancy (Young), Mae (Pather). John Franklin died in 1936 and is buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery(according to The Union County History book, article written by James L. Patrick, a great grandson of Tranquilla and John), John is listed as a widower on the 1930 census and was living with a son. (This census must have been late)Thanks to the help of RAOGK Volunteer Ms. Kelly, Tranquillas death records have been found. In September Tranquilla was attended by Dr. Gourlock. It was determined that Tranquilla at the age of 76 was suffering from (Aortic regurgitation). Her symptoms would have been the same as cardiac distress, with a racing pulse as her heart pumped harder and harder to move blood into the left atrium as it was continuing to seep back into the Aorta. Many legends have been handed down from family. Tranquilla is believed to be over half Indian. My grandfather a grandson of Tranquilla, said his grandmother sang to him in Indian, and that Indians came and wanted Tranquilla or his mother Elizabeth to go with them to the reservation. There is a story of a Indian Lady being taken by force to a train and being saved by the Jones boys. True or not these legends have kept Tranquilla's memory alive. It is a fact that John signed a 200-dollar bond agreement five days before being able to marry Tranquilla. (This was common at this time) The search goes on and branches of her (now very extended family) are searching for clues and facts on Tranquilla and John Franklin. In 1926 Tranquilla and John Franklin were forced to "break up housekeeping" and move in with children, one staying with a son and the other with another son. (Reported by granddaughter Nannie) Tranquilla (in a wheelchair) lived 5years. John lived 10. The picture shown was my great grandmother Elizabeth's (Lizzie)Jones-Starnes, handed down to Uncle Cliff and in the hands of his granddaughter. (Great-Great-Granddaughter of Tranquilla and John Franklin). Her family continues.

Notes for John Franklin Jones:

John Franklin Jones the son of Robert L. Jones and Nancy Pannell-Jones, according to records born 1853 in Pontotoc County, Ms. married in 1879 to Tranquilla Haggadeth Darling-daughter of Ephriam and Peninah(Pennie)Coley-Jones. Little is know about John Franklin except he lived near the Keownville, community and came from a large family with Hugh, Elize, Darrell, Nannie and Nancy. and had a larger family. Edward, Ephriam Andrew(Drew), Lum, Henry, Robert,Isom, girls-Elizabeth (Starnes), Nancy (Young)-{perhaps named after Nancy Pannell-Jones?}, Mae (Pather)had over 39 grandchildren. It is possible his father fought in the Civil war-Robert Jones buried at Mt. Gilead, saw battle with the 31st regiment, was in Hoods campaign in North Carolina, records say that John Franklin Jones father moved to Mississippi from North Carolina, it is now believed he came home from the war last serving in North Carolina. More than likely to marry Nancy Pannell, whose family is buried all over the Mt. Gilead Cemetery.(Before being married John did sign a bond agreement to promise to pay 200 dollars if he backed out of the wedding, R.W.Pannell signed with him on the bond-this he was the husband of Eliza Ann Elizabeth Darling-Pannell(Sister to Tranquilla) Tranquilla has been the source of many legends, said to have refused to leave her family when Indians tried to get her to go with them to the reservations. Many of the (Mannaseh Darlings)(Brother) still live in Union County, and their legends match those of my family(the Tranquilla Darlings)(Sister)(ex. an Indian princess married into the Darling Family.) true or not these stories have kept the family legends alive. The truth is these people lived in Union County, they worked there, they had their children there and died there and we would not be here without them.

John Franklin Jones and Tranquilla Darling had the following children:

Notes for Elizabeth Jones:
From findagrave.com

Elizabeth Jones Starnes born in 1888 to Tranquilla Darling and John Franklin Jones, she was the granddaughter of Robert Jones and Nancy Pannell-Jones, and Ephraim Darling and Pennie Coley-Darling. She married Daily Starnes I and had Archie Wilson, Ethel and Clifton and a Son named Estes Maddox of Covington, TN. Her mother was full blooded Choctaw, legend told by my grandfather is the Indians headed to the reservations came to get Tranquilla and she would not leave her children and husband and refused to go. My grandfather also remembered her singing to him in Choctaw. they lived near New Albany, Ms. Elizabeth (Grandma Maddox), as she was known from a later marriage, later remarried Daily Starnes not long before he died in 1971, she died in the winter of 1977. and is buried next to, Daily Starnes. The life she lived was hard and most of us today cannot imagine the difficult life she had trying to provide for her family. At the end of her life she lived near her sons and helped take care of the children. She was a religious women, without a bad bone in her body as her son remembered her. Later information has shown that Elizabeth was raised in Keowenville, area of Union County Ms.

Her robes are simple-she wears no crown. And yet she wears one; for widowed no more, she is crowned with the love that has gone before, and crowned with the love she left behind, uncover your heads, lift up your hearts on high, The Queen in silence is driving by. Pf

Crimson and Red are the roses we lay, blood red like the heart that beats in her so true and pure, the mother of all mothers, the strong and brave and wise. good woman rest in peace but keep your eye on us and keep us. (rh)

Notes for Daley Gipson Starnes:
From findagrave.com

Daley Starnes was more than likely born in Union County Mississippi, he is listed in the 1900 census in McNairy Tennessee, as being born in Feb, and being 10, there is a William M. that is listed as his brother, 12 years old, they were two children of Adam and Sarah M. Starnes that traced birthroots to North Carolina, and Mississippi. Daley married Elizabeth Jones-daughter of John Franklin Jones and Tranquille Darling. Daley and Elizabeth had Clifton, Archie, and Ethel-all buried in Alcorn County. He had a brother named Marshall (William M.). This is possibly William Marshall Starnes, born Aug 30, 1891. Whose wife Bert is buried in the Jones Memorial Cemetery, there is not a date of death for "Uncle Marshall" and his birth year is the same as his wife? My grandfather and his brother went to work for Uncle Marshall, when they were young, and I have heard stories. My grandfather was born in Union County, so there is a connection there. There were supposed to be three brothers that came to Mississippi, not sure from where Daley, Marshall, and unknown came. There is Garnet Starnes who has roots in Union County, maybe he or his dad is the missing brother (Not listed on the 1900 census, with Sarah, Daley, and William M. Daley and Elizabeth divorced for several years, and she became Elizabeth Maddox. The story is that Daley left her with children to raise and she remarried. Late in life the children talked the two into getting married again. The story is they never consummated the marriage the second time and Elizabeth told him she would marry him and that she would bury him, and she did. She outlived him by 6 years. There are many Starnes families in Mississippi, Tenn, NC, Texas.

Notes for Wanda Jean Wells:
Wanda Jean Wells Beckham

1937 - 2015

Wanda Jean Wells Beckham of Denison, Texas passed away on March 22, 2015. She was born February 27, 1937 in Monkstown, Texas to O.T. Wells and Mildred Lucille Darling Wells.

Wanda attended public schools in Denison, Texas and was graduated from Denison High School in 1955. She enrolled in Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas in 1955. On July 25, 1958, Wanda married Gerald Gist Beckham at Calvary Baptist Church in Denison, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckham moved to Houston in August, 1958. Wanda was employed as a secretary at Baroid Chemical Company and Gerald as a teacher at Bellaire High School. Mrs. Beckham gave birth to Elizabeth Karron, September 26, 1959.

Wanda returned to Hardin-Simmons University and was graduated in 1962 with a bachelor's degree in English and Business Administration. Prior to her return to H-SU, she studied at Grayson County College and Texas A. & M. University, Commerce. Employed by the Houston public schools, Wanda taught at Deady Junior High School for four years and at Fondren Junior High School for twenty-one years. While at Fondren, she sponsored both the cheerleaders and the school newspaper. The paper was selected as the outstanding junior high school paper in the state of Texas by the Texas Interscholastic League.

Wanda was a committed follower of Jesus, and was active in Sharpstown Baptist Church as a choir member, a Sunday School teacher and youth choir sponsor for many years. She reflected Jesus in all areas of her life and was a life-long Baptist.

The Beckhams resigned from their positions in Houston in 1983 and returned to Denison, Texas. Wanda spent the last few years of her thirty-year teaching career at Whitewright High School. Both Gerald and Wanda were active at Hyde Park Baptist Church in Denison where they invested in countless people. Wanda knew no strangers, listened intently to those in her pathway resulting in people feeling love, valued and cared for. The Beckhams retired together in 1993 and moved to Loveland, Colorado in 1995 to spend their retirement years. They had spent many wonderful times visiting Wanda's parents in Loveland over the years.

Mrs. Beckham was an accomplished decorative painter. She enjoyed giving her crafts to family members and friends, as well as marketing some of her work to the public. She also took pleasure in sharing her skills in the English language with friends and family who needed help in editing manuscripts and research papers. Her grandchildren and great grandchildren probably benefited the most from this activity.

The Beckhams were members of Orchards Baptist Church of Loveland, Colorado during their retirement. Wanda served as a study group leader and as a member of the sanctuary committee. She enjoyed family gatherings, cooking, painting, reading and being with Beckham while waiting on him and others hand and foot. They celebrated their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary in 2014. Gerald and Wanda returned to Denison in 2013.

Mrs. Beckham was preceded in death by her parents O.T. and Mildred, an infant sister, Margorie Louise, and brother-in-law, Dr. Rufus Spraberry. She is survived by her husband, Gerald; daughter, Elizabeth Karron Johnson and husband, Dr. Timothy Scott Johnson of Lincoln, Nebraska; brother, Robert Earl Wells of Denver, Colorado; sister, Doris Laneta Wells Spraberry of Garland, Texas; sister-in-law, Gwen Beckham of San Angelo, Texas; grandson, Kevin Beckham Johnson and wife, Chasity of Lincoln, Nebraska; granddaughter, Lauren Elizabeth Truelove and husband, Tyler of Frisco, Texas; six great grandchildren, Avery Dolliver, Helen Truelove, Beckham Johnson, Slater Johnson, Jane Truelove and Gray Johnson; nephew and nieces, Stephen Spraberry, Kim Watson, Becky Jackson and their families.

Family visitation will be 6-7:30 p.m. Friday at Johnson-Moore Funeral Home.

Services will be held at Parkside Baptist Church, Denison, Texas on Saturday, March 28, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. Dr. Tim Johnson will officiate. Interment will follow at Cedarlawn Memorial Park in Sherman, Texas.

PENNY'S OBITUARY

Funeral services for Penny Gayle Darling, 59, of Livingston, Texas, will be held Sunday, March 22, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. in the Cochran Funeral Home Chapel in Livingston, Texas. Visitation will be held Saturday, March 21, 2020, from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m., in the Cochran Funeral Home in Livingston, Texas.

Penny was born November 4, 1960 in LaDonia, Texas, to parents, Samuel Boyd Barnett and Dorothy Jean (Nipp) Barnett, and passed away March 15, 2020 in Livingston, Texas. She was raised on a large farm with three brothers and loving parents. She was accustomed to hard work, and was always the first to pick up a tool when there was a job to be done. She married and had her children at a young age. She was a doting wife and loved her family very much. Her passions were gardening, cooking, fishing, sewing, dancing, and being with her family every chance she got. Penny loved anything outdoors. She loved playing with her grandchildren and great grandchildren very much. Being young at heart, she was "49 and holding!" and would always tell you, "never say good-bye - just say see you later". She joined in heaven, her parents, Sam and Dorothy Barnett; son, Charles Lynn Darling; husband, Robert Lee Shupack; brother, Sammy Jean Barnett; brother and sister-in-law, Corbett Lee and Sharon Jones; first husband, Michael Darling; and granddaughter, Anna Johnson.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Crystal Darling and Big Sexy; daughter and son-in-law, Michelle and Chris Dobbs; daughter and son-in-law, Valerie and Shawn Johnson; son, Timothy Shaffer; brother, Ronnie Barnett; uncle, Jonny Piland; grandchildren, Cricket, Lil' Bit, Bo-Bo, Toe Head, Be-Bo, Katie Bug, Hailey Baby, Munchkin, and Sweet Pea; great grandchildren, Tinkerbell, Lil' Lady, Lil' Man, Cocumo, Lucky, and Ezekiel; along with numerous other relatives, and friends.

Notes for Wava Sue Douglas:

Funeral services for Wava Sue Douglas Hurley will be held on January 10, 2022, at 10 a.m. at Murray-Orwosky Funeral Home with Kenneth Douglas, Norman Douglas, and Billy Douglas officiating. Pallbearers are Ricky Burchfield, J.D. McKinney, Dallas English, Trentin McKinney, Dobbs English, Don Young, and Bill Allin. Interment will follow at Rest Lawn Cemetery. Visitation will be held on January 9, 2022, from 4 to 6 p.m. at Murray-Orwosky Funeral Home.

Wava Sue Hurley, 83, of Yantis passed on to eternity at her home on January 4, 2022. She was born the only daughter of Jesse O. and Mildred Sims Douglas on February 6, 1938, at home in southern Hopkins County. She was a lifelong Church of Christ member. Wava graduated from Sulphur Springs High School in 1956 and went on to attend East Texas State College, graduating with her master's degree in Home Economics. While there, she enjoyed sorority life and fashion modeling.

After college, Wava devoted 61 years to teaching Home Economics. Ms. Hurley spent many of those teaching years at Alba-Golden and then Rains I.S.D., but also taught in Cooper, Sugarland, and Yantis. She even held the honor of serving as President of the Texas Vocational Home Economics Teachers Association from 1985-1986 and as President of the Texas Beta Nu teacher sorority from 1996-1998.

Wava Sue's passion for cooking, sewing, and homemaking carried over in her personal life as well where she was well-renowned for her extravagant wedding cakes, birthday cakes, pies, and catering. She was also a master seamstress who kept her granddaughters outfitted in the latest fashions in the rodeo and horseshow circuits. Of all her accomplishments though, her favorite title to carry was "Nanny" to her grandkids. Nanny was known for pancakes, banana pudding, and never missing an extracurricular event.

Wava Sue Hurley is survived by "her Lisa", only daughter, Lisa Hurley Burchfield and husband Ricky of Yantis; granddaughter, Kristin McKinney and husband J.D. of Yantis; granddaughter, Starla English and husband Dallas of Comfort, Texas; and great-grandchildren, Trentin, Dylan, Dobbs, and Drew. She also considered countless colleagues and former students to be family.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Wava Sue Hurley, 83, of Yantis passed on to eternity at her home on January 4, 2022. She was born the only daughter of Jesse O. and Mildred Sims Douglas on February 6, 1938, at home in southern Hopkins County. She was a lifelong Church of Christ member. Wava graduated from Sulphur Springs High School in 1956 and went on to attend East Texas State College, graduating with her master's degree in Home Economics. While there, she enjoyed sorority life and fashion modeling.

After college, Wava devoted 61 years to teaching Home Economics. Ms. Hurley spent many of those teaching years at Alba-Golden and then Rains I.S.D., but also taught in Cooper, Sugarland, and Yantis. She even held the honor of serving as President of the Texas Vocational Home Economics Teachers Association from 1985-1986 and as President of the Texas Beta Nu teacher sorority from 1996-1998.

Wava Sue's passion for cooking, sewing, and homemaking carried over in her personal life as well where she was well-renowned for her extravagant wedding cakes, birthday cakes, pies, and catering. She was also a master seamstress who kept her granddaughters outfitted in the latest fashions in the rodeo and horseshow circuits. Of all her accomplishments though, her favorite title to carry was "Nanny" to her grandkids. Nanny was known for pancakes, banana pudding, and never missing an extracurricular event.

Wava Sue Hurley is survived by "her Lisa", only daughter, Lisa Hurley Burchfield and husband Ricky of Yantis; granddaughter, Kristin McKinney and husband J.D. of Yantis; granddaughter, Starla English and husband Dallas of Comfort, Texas; and great-grandchildren, Trentin, Dylan, Dobbs, and Drew. She also considered countless colleagues and former students to be family.

She was preceded in death by her parents.
