He grew up in Greenfield and worked for more than 30 years at Laclede Steel Company in Alton, IL. He was an exceptional bowler who was proud of winning a bowling tournament when he was just 16, though the $1,000 winnings caused him to lose his amateur status, which made him ineligible to play football during his senior year of high school. He also enjoyed collecting bird figurines, playing chess, collecting stamps and working on genealogy and the history of Greene County. He was an early adopter of computers and organized the Madison County (IL) User Group in 1986.

In 2006, he and his wife moved from Alton, IL to South Jacksonville, IL with their cats. He was really a dog person, but a kitten followed him home from work one Easter morning and he could never figure out how to get rid of it or the others who showed up on his doorstep. His love of cats and dogs prompted the family to designate the animal shelter, The Dog P.E.N., P.O. Box 2, Roodhouse, IL 62082, as a memorial.

A celebration of his life was held for the family on March 4, 2017, in Greenfield, IL with his nephew, Jeromy Moore, officiating. His ashes will be interred at a later date at Providence Cemetery in Carrollton, IL.
