

Descendants of Robert L Jones

Generation 1

1. ROBERT L¹ JONES was born in 1824 in South Carolina, USA. He died in Mar 1868 in Union, Mississippi, USA. He married NANCY CAROLINE PANNELL. She was born in 1831. She died in 1882.

Robert L Jones and Nancy Caroline Pannell had the following child:

2.
 - i. JOHN FRANKLIN² JONES was born in Jun 1850 in Mississippi, USA. He died in 1936. He married Tranquilla Darling, daughter of Ephraim Benjamin Darlin and Peninah Coley, on Nov 25, 1879 in Union, Mississippi, USA. She was born on Feb 25, 1855. She died on Oct 27, 1931.

Generation 2

2. JOHN FRANKLIN² JONES (Robert L¹) was born in Jun 1850 in Mississippi, USA. He died in 1936. He married Tranquilla Darling, daughter of Ephraim Benjamin Darlin and Peninah Coley, on Nov 25, 1879 in Union, Mississippi, USA. She was born on Feb 25, 1855. She died on Oct 27, 1931.

Notes for John Franklin Jones:

John Franklin Jones the son of Robert L. Jones and Nancy Pannell-Jones, according to records born 1853 in Pontotoc County, Ms. married in 1879 to Tranquilla Haggadeth Darling-daughter of Ephraim and Peninah(Pennie)Coley-Jones. Little is know about John Franklin except he lived near the Keownville, community and came from a large family with Hugh, Elize, Darrell, Nannie and Nancy. and had a larger family. Edward, Ephraim Andrew(Drew), Lum, Henry, Robert,Isom, girls-Elizabeth (Starnes), Nancy (Young)-{perhaps named after Nancy Pannell-Jones?}, Mae (Pather)had over 39 grandchildren. It is possible his father fought in the Civil war-Robert Jones buried at Mt. Gilead, saw battle with the 31st regiment, was in Hoods campaign in North Carolina, records say that John Franklin Jones father moved to Mississippi from North Carolina, it is now believed he came home from the war last serving in North Carolina. More than likely to marry Nancy Pannell, whose family is buried all over the Mt. Gilead Cemetery.(Before being married John did sign a bond agreement to promise to pay 200 dollars if he backed out of the wedding, R.W.Pannell signed with him on the bond-this he was the husband of Eliza Ann Elizabeth Darling-Pannell(Sister to Tranquilla) Tranquilla has been the source of many legends, said to have refused to leave her family when Indians tried to get her to go with them to the reservations. Many of the (Mannaseh Darlings)(Brother) still live in Union County, and their legends match those of my family(the Tranquilla Darlings)(Sister)(ex. an Indian princess married into the Darling Family.) true or not these stories have kept the family legends alive. The truth is these people lived in Union County, they worked there, they had their children there and died there and we would not be here without them.

Notes for Tranquilla Darling:

Born in 1855 in Pontotoc County, to Ephraim(son of John and Mary (Pace)Darling, and Penninah(Coley). The granddaughter of Margret Elizabeth(Pace) Coley and William Coley Jr. Married on November 11th 1879, to John Franklin Jones. The mother of Edward, Ephraim Andrew,Lum,Henry,Robert,Isom,Elizabeth(Starnes),Nancy(Young),Mae(Pather). John Franklin died in 1936 and is buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery(according to The Union County History book, article written by James L. Patrick, a great grandson of Tranquilla and John), John is listed as a widower on the 1930 census and was living with a son.(This census must have been late)Thanks to the help of RAOGK Volunteer Ms. Kelly, Tranquillas death records have been found. In September Tranquilla was attended by Dr. Gourdlock it was determined that Tranquilla at the age of 76 was suffering from (Aortic regurgitation). Her symptoms would have been the same as cardiac distress, with a racing pulse as her heart pumped harder and harder to move blood into the left atrium as it was continuing to seep back into the Aorta. Many legends have been handed down from family. Tranquilla is believed to be over half indian. My grandfather a grandson of Tranquilla, said his grandmother sang to him in Indian, and that indians came and wanted Tranquilla or his mother Elizabeth to go with them to the reservation. There is a story of a Indian Lady being taken by force to a train and being saved by the Jones boys. True or not these legends have kept Tranquilla's memory alive. It is a fact that John signed a 200 dollar bond agreement five days before being able to marry Tranquilla.(This was common at this time) The search goes on and branches of her(now very extended family) are searching for clues and facts on Tranquilla and John Franklin. In 1926 Tranquilla and John Franklin were forced to "break up house keeping" and move in with children one staying with a son and the other with another son.(reported by granddaughter Nannie) Tranquilla(in a wheelchair) lived 5years. John lived 10. The picture shown was my great grandmother Elizabeth's(Lizzie)Jones-Starnes, handed down to Uncle Cliff and in the hands of his granddaughter.(Great Great Granddaughter of Tranquilla and John Franklin). Her family continues.

Tracy:

The known children of John Darling and Mary Pace are Rhoda, Ephraim, Andrew and Maria per Peggy Chapman (email unknown). They married 12/30/1803 in Richmond Co, GA. Mary was a daughter of Drury Pace and Mary Bussey. She is a descendant of Richard Pace of Jamestown, VA, ca 1625.

Notes for Elizabeth Jones:
From findagrave.com

Elizabeth Jones Starnes born in 1888 to Tranquilla Darling and John Franklin Jones, she was the granddaughter of Robert Jones and Nancy Pannell-Jones, and Ephraim Darling and Pennie Coley-Darling. She married Daily Starnes I and had Archie Wilson, Ethel and Clifton and a Son named Estes Maddox of Covington, TN. Her mother was full blooded Choctaw, legend told by my grandfather is the Indians headed to the reservations came to get Tranquilla and she would not leave her children and husband and refused to go. My grandfather also remembered her singing to him in Choctaw. they lived near New Albany, Ms. Elizabeth (Grandma Maddox), as she was known from a later marriage, later remarried Daily Starnes not long before he died in 1971, she died in the winter of 1977. and is buried next to, Daily Starnes. The life she lived was hard and most of us today cannot imagine the difficult life she had trying to provide for her family. At the end of her life she lived near her sons and helped take care of the children. She was a religious women, without a bad bone in her body as her son remembered her. Later information has shown that Elizabeth was raised in Keowenville, area of Union County Ms.

Notes for Daley Gipson Starnes:

From findagrave.com

Daley Starnes was more than likely born in Union County Mississippi, he is listed in the 1900 census in McNairy Tennessee, as being born in Feb, and being 10, there is a William M. that is listed as his brother, 12 years old, they were two children of Adam and Sarah M. Starnes that traced birthroots to North Carolina, and Mississippi. Daley married Elizabeth Jones-daughter of John Franklin Jones and Tranquille Darling. Daley and Elizabeth had Clifton, Archie, and Ethel-all buried in Alcorn County. He had a brother named Marshall (Willaim M.). This is possibly William Marshall Starnes, born Aug 30, 1891. Whose wife Bert is buried in the Jones Memorial Cemetery, there is not a date of death for "Uncle Marshall" and his birth year is the same as his wife? My grandfather and his brother went to work for Uncle Marshall, when they were young, and I have heard stories. My grandfather was born in Union County, so there is a connection there. There were supposed to be three brothers that came to Mississippi, not sure from where Daley, Marshall, and unknown came. There is Garnet Starnes who has roots in Union County, maybe he or his dad is the missing brother (Not listed on the 1900 census, with Sarah, Daley, and William M. Daley and Elizabeth divorced for several years, and she became Elizabeth Maddox. The story is that Daley left her with children to raise and she remarried. Late in life the children talked the two into getting married again. The story is they never consummated the marriage the second time and Elizabeth told him she would marry him and that she would bury him, and she did. She outlived him by 6 years. There are many Starnes families in Mississippi, Tenn, NC, Texas.

Daley Gipson Starnes and Elizabeth Jones had the following children:
