~MY ADMIRE FAMILY~

Obituary (written by a friend)

John W. Admire, son of [my ancestor] JOHN ADMIRE and Sena Elizabeth (Fletcher) Admire, was born May 5, 1857 in Jasper County, Illinois and departed this life at his home in Roodhouse, Illinois at 6:20 Thursday evening May 25, 1916 age 59 years and 20 days. He was the second of a family of four children. One brother, James A. and one sister Eliza A. preceding him to the yonder shore.

He is survived by one sister, Juliet V. Hardwick of Kane, Illinois. Also two half sisters, JANE ADCOCK [my ancestor] of Carrollton, Illinois and Mary Barrett of Arkansas and one half brother, Henry C. Admire of McKanda, Illinois.

The deceased with his parents moved to Greene Co. when he was about five years old, locating on a farm near Woodville. In 1878 he was married to Ida J. Buris of Winchester, Illinois taking up married life on a farm near Woodville, where two children, Luther L. and Katie A. were born. They with their mother preceding the deceased to the other world.

Later in 1883 he was married to Julia A. Hardwick, locating in Missouri, returning in about six months to Illinois and moved on his father's farm east of Roodhouse, later moving to Roodhouse where he resided until his death. Of this union three children were born. William A. who died in infancy, Charles Thomas of Arkansas, and Lawrence Clay of Roodhouse, who with their mother and a host of relatives are left to mourn their loss.

The deceased united with the Forest Oak Baptist Church near Woodville when 18 years of age, never moving his membership until death. He was a kind and loving father, a worthy and respected citizen, neighbor and friend. The deceased joined the Mona Baraca Bible of the Baptist Sunday School in Roodhouse May 9, 1915 and was a faithful member until fall when he was taken to his bed, being confined 15 weeks until his death.

He often spoke of the class during his sickness, enjoyed the members visits, and spoke of the enjoyment he got from hearing the lesson discussions and expressed his hope of again being able to attend the class sessions.

He bore his suffering with patience and Christian fortitude. Thursday morning he called his family to his bedside and told them that he would soon have to leave them, that Jesus was calling and he must go saying that he was ready and willing to go. Once more vacant place in the family circle here, but one added to the circle on yonder shore. Finally may the circle be again complete to enjoy God's presence forever more.

Jen was born in Greene County, Illinois in August of 1931, the daughter of the late Wilbur and Nellie (Greene) Cannedy. She married Benjamin (Ben) Goode, Sr. on June 17, 1948, in Greenfield. They raised 5 children on their farm near Wrights, IL and she is remembered as a wonderful mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

Jen sold Avon from door to door for many years. She ultimately became a cook at Greenfield Elementary School in 1969 and enjoyed her position there for 24 years. She had many good friends at the school and was especially fond of the other ladies who made that kitchen special. Jen loved to watch and feed the birds in her yard. She had a strong affinity for dogs and cats, especially her dogs, Rosebud and Maddie. She was very creative and crafted for many years.

Jen is survived by Ben, her husband of 70 years. She is also survived by her children, Brenda (John) Albrecht, Marilyn (Joe) Weisner, Benji (Bev) Goode, Sherry (Elliott) Turpin all of Greenfield, Illinois and Patty (Jim) Self of Oxford, Mississippi. Jen was blessed with 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren, all of whom survive.
